

2 |

ICFAI University conducts mass social work in Sovima

Dimapur, May 1 (EMN): ICFAI University Nagaland carried out a mass social work in collaboration with the Sovima Village Council on the theme "Segregation of Waste at Source and Cleanliness Drive" on April 28. Rovikotuo Yhoshu, Asst. Professor (Philosophy) who was in-charge of the event reported that the social work was carried out to clean the surroundings of the village and to segregate the waste. The work was carried with out with the support of all the students of the university, NSS, members of the university's Green Club and faculty members, read an update. In a separate event, the NSS unit of the university under the charge of the nodal officer, Dr. Imtinungsang Jamir, Asst. Prof. (Management Studies) carried out a government-initiated survey activity in Sovima area.

ICFAI University students during the mass social work.

ICFAI University:
ICFAI University Nagaland in collaboration with the Sovima Village Council under the theme "Segregation of Waste at Source and Cleanliness Drive" organized a mass social work on April 28.

Assistant professor (Philosophy), Rovikotuo Yhoshu, who was in-charge of the event informed that the social work was organized to clean the surroundings of the village and to segregate the waste.

The work was carried with the support of all the students of the university, NSS, members of the university's Green Club and faculty members.

In a separate event, the NSS unit of the university under the charge of the nodal officer assistant professor (Management Studies), Dr. Imtinung-sang Jamir, carried out a government-initiated survey activity in Sovima area.