

IUN Youth Fest 2023 organized by ICFAI University March 25, 2023

NAGALAND POST, DIMAPUR
SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 2023

Two-day IUN 'Youth Festival' concludes

Cosplay artistes with the riders during the Youth Festival. (NP)

Participants of fitness challenge display their physique during the festival. (NP)

The two-day ICFAI University Nagaland (IUN) Youth Festival concluded successfully on Friday, with chairman, Livingstone Foundation International School, Dr Andrew Ahoto, as the special guest. The first day witnessed competitions on Mehendi Art, Mobile Games, Photography, Short Films, Table Tennis, Naga Wrestling, Tug of War, Recycled Fashion, Dance, etc, while the second day witnessed choir competition, beat-box battle, arm wrestling, fitness challenge and cosplay. (Staff Reporter)

IUN holds youth festival

Dimapur, March 25 (EMN): With an objective to reconnect art, talent and creativity, ICFAI University Nagaland (IUN) organised its annual youth festival on the March 23 and 24. Dr. Andrew Ahoto Sema, chairman of Livingstone Foundation International, attended the inaugural function as the guest of honour, wherein he motivated the students to soar higher and strive to attain perfection in career and academics. He also encouraged the youth to take responsibility of their life to sow the seeds of success. An update from the university stated that his empowering words stimulated the young minds with positivity to be a catalyst for positive change. The event witnessed Mehendi art, mobile games competition, photography competition, short film, table tennis, Naga wrestling, nail art, tug of war, recycled fashion and dance competition.