

IUN celebrates Advent Christmas

Dimapur, Dec. 11 (EMN): ICFAI University Nagaland (IUN) organised its Pre-Christmas celebration on December 9 with much excitement and joyous spirits. The first session of the programme was chaired by Vizovotuo Tacu, where the Christmas message was delivered by Tali Lemtur, head of Computer Science department at Tetso College. In order to create awareness during this season of celebration, a Christmas door decoration competition using recycled materials was held. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Avipra, literary and cultural secretary of Students' Council. Choir competition, performances by the university's alumni Vikele and friend and a musical piece by Milotoli were other highlights of the programme.

NAGALAND POST, DIMAPUR
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 2022

ICFAI: ICFAI University, Nagaland held its pre-Christmas celebration on December 9 with much excitement and joyous spirits. During the first session of the programme, pre-Christmas message delivered by dean of department (Computer Science), Tetso College, Tali Lemtur. In order to create awareness during this season of celebration, a Christmas door decoration competition using recycled materials was held. A variety of events were conducted which included a choir competition, performances by the university's alumni and a musical piece.