

Faculty Profile

Name: DR. AMIHE SWU

Designation: Visiting Faculty Member

Teaching Areas: Literary Criticism and Theory, Naga Literature

Research Interests: Post-Colonial Literature,
Naga literature in English,
Japanese media culture

Education: NET-JRF, UGC, 2013
PhD, Hyderabad Central University, 2020
MA, Nagaland University, 2010

Professional Experience: 4 Months (Teaching), 5 Years 5 Months (Industrial)

1. Since Feb 2021: Visiting Faculty Member, Department of English, The ICFAI University Nagaland, Dimapur, Nagaland
2. Oct 2013 to May 2014: JAA, Department of Treasuries, Govt. of Nagaland
3. 2012: Project Liaison Officer, Mindlogicx with Nagaland University
4. 2010 – 2011: Editor, YouthNet Opportunity Express
5. 2008 – 2010: Radio Jockey, All India Radio, Kohima

Papers in Conferences:

1. 19th Century Nagas: A Colonial Construct in a National Seminar titled: Discoursing the shifts of Naga society in North East India, Oct 2016, Hyderabad Central University
2. A study of Naga Customs in Contemporary Naga Literature in an International Conference on Indian Literature as World Literature: Past, Present, Future, January 2018. English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad.
3. Giving the Past Its Due: A Study on Naga Customs/Beliefs in Select Contemporary Naga Literature in a National Seminar on Etho-Mytho Facets of North East Indian Writings in English, Feb 2018, Central University of Tamil Nadu.

Books / Book Chapters:

1. Giving the past its due: A study on Naga Customs/Beliefs in select contemporary Naga Literature in Etho-Mytho Facets of North East Indian Writings in English, 2019.